

Register now for WCIA Employment Supervisory and Management Training

By Maria Orozco

WCIA believes that employment losses can be avoided or mitigated by having knowledgeable and trained managers and supervisors. There are many regional opportunities being offered for a variety of supervisory and employment law trainings that help prepare supervisors for tackling thorny workplace situations.

To register for the trainings, please visit the website: wciapool.org, click Training and Education and then select Training Calendar.

Human Resources Forum (Recommended for HR professionals)

- August 21-Tukwila
- September 11-Tukwila

Navigating the Performance Evaluation Process

- October 18-Tukwila
- October 24-Sammamish
- October 25-Mount Vernon

Promoting a Workplace Free of Harassment, Discrimination, and Retaliation for Managers and Supervisors

- September 26-Burlington
- October 3-Tukwila

WCIA Supervisory Skills Credentialed Program Series:

- Building Supervisory Skills 101
 - August 1-Kennewick
 - August 23-Shoreline
 - September 25-Longview
 - November 1-Tukwila

- Building Supervisory Skills 201
 - August 7-Walla Walla
 - August 8-Kennewick
 - August 28-Shoreline
 - October 9-Longview
 - November 15-Tukwila
- Building Supervisory Skills 301
 - August 14-Walla Walla
 - August 15-Kennewick
 - September 18-Shoreline
 - October 16-Longview
 - November 29-Tukwila
- Employment Law for Supervisors
 - August 21- Walla Walla
 - August 22- Kennewick
 - September 25-Shoreline
 - October 30-Longview
 - December 6-Tukwila

WCIA Supervisory Skills Continuing Education Training Series:

- Best Practices for Coaching, Counseling, and Transitioning to Discipline
 - September 20-Camas
 - November 1-Lacey
- Approaching Supervisory Situations with Confidence
 - August 16-Burlington
 - October 18-Brier