This document is not an insurance policy. The Washington Cities Insurance Authority (WCIA) is not an insurance company. This document is an agreement by WCIA and its member participating in this Auto Physical Damage program to pay all covered losses subject to the limits, terms and conditions of this Agreement and any addenda attached. Various provisions in this agreement restrict coverage. Read the entire agreement carefully to determine rights, duties and what is and is not covered.

Throughout this agreement, the words "you" and "your" refer to the Member shown in the Property Joint Protection Program that is participating in the Auto Physical Damage Program. The words "we," "us" and "our" refer to WCIA.

Other words and phrases that appear in quotation marks have special meaning. Refer to Section IV - Definitions.

If you and we disagree on the amount of "loss," either may demand an appraisal of the "loss." In this event, each party will select a competent appraiser. The two appraisers will select a competent and impartial umpire. The appraisers will state separately the actual cash value and amount of "loss." If they fail to agree, they will submit their differences to the umpire. A decision agreed to by any two will be binding. Each party will:
