

Kick off 2026 with WCIA's expanded training and risk management programs

By Patti Crane

Members Services is excited to launch WCIA's 2026 training season with an expanded lineup of supervisor, leadership, and risk management programs designed specifically for WCIA audiences. WCIA will continue offering highly regarded supervisor training led by Janelle Tarasewicz of Aperture EQ and Summit Law Group. We are pleased to welcome Jennifer Bouman-Steagall of Red Kite Employment Law, who will join our training team and bring additional expertise to our supervisor series and employment law offerings.

Supervisor and Risk Management Programs

The 2026 Targeted Topics address some of today's most pressing workplace challenges, including Conducting Effective Workplace Investigations, Managing Public Sector Layoffs and Furloughs, and Empowering Executive Leaders to Cultivate Trust and Deliver Results.

Our WCIA Supervisor Series features practical, skill-building sessions such as Navigating Employee Performance, Supervisor Boot Camp, Coaching Essentials, Effective Employee Reviews and PIPs, and Top Documentation Strategies, all designed to support supervisors at every stage of leadership development.

WCIA also continues to offer a wide range of Risk Management Programs, including in-person leadership trainings, virtual staff sessions, webinars highlighting successful member practices, and COMPACT-approved topics such as insurance and indemnification requirements.

WCIA Events Calendar

All WCIA-hosted training events are free for WCIA members and attendance counts toward COMPACT training requirements. To stay informed about upcoming sessions and registration opportunities, we encourage members to bookmark the WCIA Events Calendar and share it with their teams. Please contact Member Services with any questions.
