

WCIA education response to COVID-19 (Coronavirus): online training

By Patti Crane

WCIA continues to assist our members in training employees remotely. The diversity of online trainings has increased as most employers have seized their “virtual” opportunity to educate. Here is how WCIA is currently helping:

WCIA Training Reimbursement Additions

The following virtual trainings have been added to WCIA Reimbursement Programs. Please pay first and then submit for reimbursement by going to www.wciapool.org, click on Education and Training, then click Training Reimbursements and follow the prompts.

- April 5-9, 2020

2020 National Water Safety Conference

Fee: $399 (reimbursement limited to one registration per entity)

Registration Link: <http://www.cvent.com/events/2020-national-water-safety-conference-online/event-summary-06fcea39d73249f2b6c331e19b6d9440.aspx>

- April 21, 2020

Municipal Research Services Center (MRSC) Webinar Best Practices to Prevent Cyber Fraud

Fee: $35 (reimbursement limited to one registration per entity)

Registration link: <http://mrsc.org/Home/Training/Upcoming-Webinars/Preventing-Cyber-Fraud-Webinar-2020.aspx>

WCIA Webinars

Below are future WCIA webinar topics that address COVID-19 concerns as well as provide tools for future workplace applications. Registration information is forthcoming.

- Risk Managing During State of Emergency Due to Coronavirus/COVID-19
- Best Practices for Managing Remote Employees
- Harassment and Discrimination in the Modern Workplace
- Best Practices for Maintaining Team Engagement During Stressful Times

Additional COVID-19 Resources

MRSC has a timely video, podcasts, as well as updated sample documents addressing COVID-19 concerns to keep local governments informed during the current crisis. Here is the link:

<http://mrsc.org/Home/Explore-Topics/Public-Safety/Emergency-Services/Public-Health-Emergencies.aspx>

Member Services will continue to explore partnered programs and create our own programs to address COVID-19 topics as well as other timely matters.